

Jaro Bar & Bistro Table

NUNC

Collection: Jaro

Designers: STUDIO RU:T

Jaro, translated to friend from "Yar" Turkish / Persian, a term often used in Slavonia, is a collection of tables with a circular central base made from a powder-coated steel plate and tube connected by a conical element. The same conical part connects the top plate, which can be made of oak, American walnut, compact or Fenix. Various sizes of tabletops and heights of bases are available, making Jaro the perfect selection for a hospitality project.
